Q16 How would you describe Ambassador Froman? (optional)

Answered: 4 Skipped: 17

#	Responses	Date
1	Unlike the others in this survey, I have no personal experience dealing with Froman. When he testifies before Congress,he's good at talking a lot without really saying anything of consequence.	10/23/2013 11:29 AM
2	Deeply embedded within lobbies of content owners with outdated business models.	10/19/2013 6:56 PM
3	The smooth operator	10/18/2013 5:31 PM
4	Charming. Close to business lobbies. Not living up to his potential to be a human being. Enemy of transparency.	10/18/2013 4:59 PM

Q17 How would you describe Barbara Weisel? (optional)

Answered: 7 Skipped: 14

#	Responses	Date
1	Willing to engage	10/23/2013 2:23 PM
2	She seems frustrated when she has to talk to civil society. She seems to take offense on a personal level when confronted with transparency concerns.	10/23/2013 11:29 AM
3	Superficial in her approach to concerns from citizens.	10/19/2013 6:56 PM
4	Not very engaged in the substance of IP issues because she is responsible for the overall negotiation.	10/18/2013 6:39 PM
5	Well meaning and pleasant as a person, but still upholds corporate IP interests at the expense of users and patients who would benefit from less stringent IP protections.	10/18/2013 5:42 PM
6	The Chamer but who does not care	10/18/2013 5:31 PM
7	Does not even recognize how deeply biased she is. Indifferent to any consumer concerns.	10/18/2013 4:59 PM

Q18 How would you describe Stan McCoy?
(optional)

Answered: 6 Skipped: 15

#	Responses	Date
1	Extremely antagonistic to civil society. Willfully obfuscates.	10/23/2013 2:38 PM
2	Doesn't listen at all. Talks over you. Totally in big Pharma's pocket v	10/23/2013 2:23 PM
3	Most likely to be outright hostile to consumer concerns. Strongest true-believer in IP Maximalism of the bunch. As a Bush appointee, he could have moved onto K Street by now where he would enjoy a higher standard of living, but I think he truly believes that he can advance the IP Maximalist agenda from his current position, and that this would be a good thing.	10/23/2013 11:29 AM
4	Has some understanding of the substance of the IP issues, but seems to believe rights holders rhetoric notwithstanding lack of evidence	10/18/2013 6:39 PM
5	The Bully	10/18/2013 5:31 PM
6	Immune to substantive arguments. Lacks sophistication as regards economics and legal issues. Reliable advocate for right holders.	10/18/2013 4:59 PM

Q19 How would you describe Probir Mehta? (optional)

Answered: 6 Skipped: 15

#	Responses	Date
1	Open to meeting many. More fair than most in the office. Seems willing to engage honestly with multiple sides. Ultimately has little power, or perhaps will, to change anything.	10/23/2013 2:38 PM
2	Nice guy but unclear if he's willing to buck business interests.	10/23/2013 2:23 PM
3	Friendliest one of the bunch. Most comfortable saying things along the lines of "we are having a thorough consultation and are accepting comments from a range of stakeholders."	10/23/2013 11:29 AM
4	Very smart, understands the issues, clearly following orders, unclear what he personally believes.	10/18/2013 6:39 PM
5	The Wolf with Sheep smile	10/18/2013 5:31 PM
6	Willing to harm poor people, for paycheck.	10/18/2013 4:59 PM
